About Covington

The City of Covington is now accepting applications for Chief of Police through January 14, 2022.

The City of Covington is in central Tipton County, Tennessee. Covington was established as Tipton County’s seat of government on December 11, 1824, and on December 9, 1826, the state legislature authorized the incorporation of Covington. The city is in West Tennessee about 12 miles east of the Mississippi River.

US Highway 51 runs through the heart of Covington and Tipton County. Thousands of vehicles travel the north-south highway. It is approximately 20 miles from Covington to Interstate 40 and 30 miles to access to Interstate 55.

Covington has industry, retail, medical care, including a well-respected community hospital, a municipal airport, restaurants, and entertainment. The city has a population of just under 10,000, a Chamber of Commerce, several banking and financial institutions, a beautiful downtown area with historic charm, and a much lower cost of living than in Memphis and Shelby County. Being the County seat, the courthouse, justice center, jail, and other local headquarters are all within just a few minutes of each other within the city limits. Covington is home to the Tipton County Board of Education, one of the best public-school systems in Tennessee, and there are to two private school systems and two institutions of higher learning – Dyersburg State Community College and the Jimmy Naifeh Center, and the Tennessee college of Applied Technology. Having the only industrial complex in Tipton County, Covington is home to Charms (a subsidiary of Tootsie Roll), Unilever (the worlds largest Ice cream manufacturer of its kind), US Cold Storage and Sugarite, making Covington the “sweet spot” of West Tennessee. The City of Covington is a service-oriented organization of more than 140 employees operating with a budget of approximately $20 million. The City’s vision is to be the number one small town of choice for families and business in Tennessee.

The Covington Municipal Airport is east of the city and features a 5,000-foot runway that can accommodate all aircraft up to small jet service. There is a modern terminal with facilities for pilots and meetings. The Memphis International Airport is located about 40 minutes south and provides 3540 daily flights to major cities. The Memphis International Airport is also the headquarters for Federal Express.
While in Covington, please drive down Main and Maple Streets in the South Main Historic District and view the old homes and brick walls. The tree-shaded streets are especially delightful during autumn when the leaves show off their brilliantly bright colors. Take in an afternoon at the library or take your children to Cobb-Parr Park to enjoy the unique kids’ designed playground, year-round aquatic center, ball fields, tennis courts, and other amenities.
The City of Covington was incorporated under a private act charter and is a Strong Mayor – Aldermanic form of Government. A copy of the charter can be viewed in its entirety at http://www.mtas.tennessee.edu. A copy of the municipal code can be viewed at the same website as well. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen is made up of the mayor, who is elected at-large and six (6) Aldermen representing three (3) individual districts. The Mayor and Aldermen serve staggered four (4) year terms.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen is the Legislative branch of the City of Covington. The Board is responsible for the adoption of all ordinances, resolutions, and policies. The mayor presides at all meetings of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. The mayor only votes in case of a tie on questions before the Board. The mayor is the business administrator of the City and carries out the day-to-day operations of the city in accordance with the ordinances, resolutions, and policies adopted by the Board. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen meetings are held in the upstairs boardroom of City Hall at 5:30 pm every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. City Hall is located at 200 W. Washington St., Covington, TN 38019.

The public is welcome and encouraged to attend all meetings. If special accommodations are needed to fully participate in any City meeting, individuals can contact City Hall at 901-476-9613 for special assistance.
City of Covington Police Department

The Police Department supports the City’s vision through the implementation of strategic goals to provide a healthy and safe living environment. The Department consists of 37 sworn officers whose primary goals include the safety and security for the city’s residents, businesses, property, and critical infrastructure resources. Covington Police Officers respond to an average of 28,000 calls for service each year.

The Police Chief is responsible for directing the operations of the Covington Police Department and is also expected to have a close working relationship with the Tipton County Sheriff’s Department, the Tipton County 911 Board, and all other safety-related entities in and around Covington. The position is responsible for managing the administrative functions of the department, such as developing policies and procedures, personnel/employment decisions, formulating long-range plans and preparing the departmental budget. Additionally, the Police Chief is responsible for overseeing all matters related to police department activities; planning and implementing comprehensive community policing, law enforcement and public safety programs. The Chief must possess the ability to build community relationships through the development of partnerships and use of proven community-oriented policing techniques. As a key member of the mayor’s leadership team, the ideal candidate will demonstrate the ability to embrace change and help guide the community through important challenges.

Equal Opportunity Employer

The City of Covington is dedicated to providing equal opportunity for employment to all applicants without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, or any other protected class. The City of Covington adheres to Title VI and Title VII.
